40 hours
*requires full attendance on March 21 and at one follow-up session plus completion of embedded activities

Registration: 8-9 a.m. on Wed., March 21 (continental breakfast)
Program: 9 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. (lunch provided)

ABOUT THIS PROGRAM: Dr. Douglas Reeves, recognized as a world-wide authority on leadership and organizational effectiveness, will discuss principles in his book Activate: A Leader's Guide to People, Practices and Processes. During this one-day program, Dr. Reeves and representatives from The Leadership and Learning Center will focus on how school leaders must communicate a clear vision, develop meaningful relationships with staff, and use data - both cause and effect data - to drive leadership actions. Registrants will receive a copy of Dr. Reeve's book in advance of the program.

Those seeking PIL/Act 48 credit must complete job-embedded activities and attend one of three follow-up sessions in August, October or December 2012 (details provided at the Congress).
