Article I – Name
The name of this Association shall be “Pennsylvania Association of School Administrators,” also referred to as PASA.

Article II – Purposes
The purposes of this Association shall be to promote the general educational welfare of the people of the Commonwealth, to evaluate and propose desirable educational legislation, to protect and advance the interests of its members, to foster professional growth, to advance educational standards in our schools, and to establish and maintain cooperative relationships among all organizations and agencies affecting education.

Article III – Organizational Structure

Section 1. The Pennsylvania Association of School Administrators is a professional organization that recognizes its leadership commitment to education and realizes that in many cases its interests will be the same as other educational organizations. It desires to maintain a close liaison with other allied groups interested in education. It is, however, a separate organization and when its role requires, it will act independently.

Section 2. The Association will be organized and governed as set forth in the following Bylaws.

Section 3. For organization of the Association, the state shall be divided into regions that conform to the boundaries of the Intermediate Units. Each region may adopt its own operational procedures that shall be in conformity with the Bylaws of the Association. Each region is encouraged to have its own regular meetings. If a region has no organization, the Board of Governors’ member from that region shall assume leadership for PASA activities in that region.

Section 4. Each region is encouraged to hold meetings throughout the year, in addition to the annual organization meeting.

Article IV – Membership

Section 1. The active membership of the association shall be open to those persons who meet the eligibility criteria of one or more of the following membership categories:

B. Small-School District Leader: Commissioned Officers in districts with fewer than 350 students.

C. District Cabinet/Central Office Administrator: central office staff who are not Commissioned Officers, including: Directors, Managers, Supervisors, CEOs, CFOs, CIOs, and Acting or Interim Superintendents.

D. Associate Member: building administrators and anyone interested in, engaged in, or associated with any phase of educational work but not employed by a school system.
E. Professor: full-time professors of educational administration or supervision who are not currently employed in full-time school administration.

F. Aspiring/Basic: teachers, graduate students, counselors or others pursuing a career as a school system leader or those who hold administrative credentials and are employed in non-administrative positions in K-12 schools.

G. Retired Administrator: active members who retire or move on from school service and are no longer employed by a public school entity.

H. Business Member: Business membership shall be extended to suitable for-profit and non-profit organizations or individuals who provide goods or services to public schools or public school employees or wish to do so.

I. Pennsylvania League of Urban Schools (PLUS) Caucus of PASA: Membership in the caucus includes district administrators and others, who are members of PASA, employed by eligible urban school districts.

Section 2. Those eligible for active membership as defined in Section 1 become active members upon payment of their annual dues. They shall continue as active members as long as they meet the eligibility requirements in Section 1 and pay their annual dues in accordance with provisions stated in the Bylaws. Active members in categories A-C shall be eligible to vote and hold office as President, President Elect, Past President, Treasurer, and Regional Board Member. Active members in categories A-E are eligible to serve on committees.

Section 3. The Board of Governors of the Pennsylvania Association of School Administrators shall have the power to pass upon all membership applications. The Board of Governors shall determine questions of eligibility for membership.

Article V – Dues

Section 1. The membership year or the dues year shall coincide with the PASA fiscal year. New members of PASA shall be granted an extended year membership of up to 15 months if they join the organization within the final three months of the current fiscal year.

Section 2. The annual membership dues for all categories shall be determined by the dues rate scale as approved by the Board of Governors.

Section 3. Dues of new Commissioned Officers, Small-School District Leaders or District Cabinet/Central Office Administrator members who join in December or thereafter of each program year shall have their dues amount calculated on a pro-rata basis as determined by the number of months remaining in the membership year.

Article VI – Officers

Section 1. The officers of the Association shall be President, President-Elect, Immediate Past President, and Treasurer.

The retiring President shall become the Immediate Past President.

The President-Elect shall become the President at the conclusion of the President’s term.

Section 2. No officer of the Association shall hold the same office for more than two consecutive years with the exception of the Treasurer who may continue in office if it is the wish of the Association. Terms of office shall operate concurrently with the PASA fiscal year and shall be for one year.
Section 3. The dues of the President, President-Elect, Immediate Past President, and Treasurer shall be those customary to the office which they hold. The Treasurer shall also serve as a representative on the Easy Procure board of directors.

Section 4. Any vacancies, which may occur during the year in the office of the President-Elect, Immediate Past President, Treasurer, or among the membership of the Board of Governors shall be filled by the Board of Governors. The person or persons so appointed shall serve until the annual meeting of the Association, at which time any vacancies shall be filled according to the election procedure outlined in Article VII of these Bylaws.

Should the office of President become vacant, the President-Elect shall succeed to the office of President.

Section 5. Executive Director. The Executive Director shall be elected by the Board of Governors and shall serve as the executive officer of the Association. The Executive Director shall administer its affairs in accordance with policies adopted by the Board of Governors. The duties of the Executive Director shall be as follows:

A. To exert leadership in school administration and supervision, nurture further professionalization of school administration, coordinate inservice information to individual members, represent the Association at designated affairs, and coordinate annual and special conferences of the Association.

B. To assure liaison with legislators and all organizations and agencies affecting education.

C. To operate and maintain an office that keeps the Board of Governors and all committees informed of all matters related to their functions, to prepare meeting agendas, provide field services for members as individuals and groups, provide appropriate general counsel and service to members, and establish and maintain communications with all regions.

D. To develop and maintain proper records including membership, information files, publications for membership, and miscellaneous data.

E. To act as custodian of all Association property.

F. To collect all funds due the Association and make deposits and investments in approved depositories, keep accurate records of all receipts and disbursements, make expenditures for the conduct of business of the Association consistent with the adopted budget, and provide for the annual audit.

G. To prepare annual and special reports of the Association.

H. To assume other duties as assigned by the Board of Governors.

Article VII – Election

A. Election of Officers

   This committee shall study and make recommendations to the Association regarding legislation important to public education and legislation affecting the Association. This Committee, in cooperation with the Executive Director and PASA Headquarters staff, shall guide such legislation through the General Assembly. The Committee shall utilize the PASA Statement of Resolutions when formulating its position on legislative issues.

B. Committee on Membership
   This committee shall be responsible for encouraging and promoting membership in the Association among those administrators who are eligible. This committee shall assist the Executive Director in conducting the annual membership renewal campaign and in seeking new members.

C. Committee on Resolutions
   This committee shall be responsible for informing and encouraging the membership to submit resolutions for consideration. The committee shall prepare an annual Statement of PASA Resolutions and distribute a copies of the proposed Statement of Resolutions to PASA membership prior to the annual business meeting. Action on the proposed resolutions shall be taken by the active members in attendance at the annual business meeting.

Section 4. Standing operating committees shall be composed of nine members, who are appointed for three-year terms by the President, so that three positions become vacant each fiscal year. All eligible members shall be notified when vacancies exist on one or more of the standing operating committees. Members interested in serving on any committee shall submit a written statement of interest to the President, who shall fill all vacancies from among those who submit a statement of interest. The standing operating committees shall be:
A. Professional Development Committee. The committee shall design and develop professional development programs and activities for the Commissioned Officers and other educators based upon needs identified by members. Programs may include, but are not limited to, the PASA Education Congress, New Superintendents Academy, Aspiring to Leadership, and Leadership for Learning programs.

B. Committee on Elections. This committee shall be responsible for providing oversight of the election of PASA officers and delegates to the AASA Governing Board as provided in Article VII of these Bylaws. The committee is also responsible for hearing and resolving any complaints or appeals regarding results of any PASA election.

C. Committee on Technology. The committee shall develop information and provide training that is designed to improve members’ efficiency and effectiveness through the use of technology.

Section 5. Ad Hoc committees shall be appointed by the President as the need arises. In making the appointments, the President shall give due consideration to representation from geographical regions of the Association. Ad Hoc committees may not usurp the functions of any standing committee named in the Bylaws.

Section 6. The Cabinet shall be composed of the officers of the association and the chairs of each standing statewide committee and standing operating committee.

Section 7. Association Representatives. PASA representatives to the Pennsylvania Interscholastic Athletic Association (PIAA), Pennsylvania Local Government Investment Trust (PLGIT) and all other PASA positions on boards of organizations affiliated with PASA, shall be selected by the President from among those active and institutional active members who indicate, through a written request, that they wish to be considered for the position. The President shall notify all eligible members when vacancies occur.

Article IX – Association Meetings

Section 1. There shall be an annual meeting of the Association. The date and place for this meeting shall be a responsibility of the Board of Governors. Other meetings of the Association may be held subject to the call of the President.

Section 2. The meetings of the Association and of all its committees shall be governed by Robert’s Rules of Order on all questions of procedure not specifically stated in these Bylaws.
